

REFINE – BUSINESS SCHOOL OF OSTRAVA WORK PLAN FOR 2004

Activity	Sector A ¹	Sector B ¹	Sector C ¹	Sector D ¹
Selected tool	Portfolio, ECTS	Portfolio, ECTS	Portfolio, ECTS	Portfolio, ECTS
Testing ²	A: participants of entering exams, wanting to study B: 06 – 10/2004 C: teachers	A: participants of entering exams, wanting to study B: 06 – 09/2004 C: teachers and trainers	A: employees of one organization from different dep. of organization possibly with different levels of education B: 06 – 09/2004 C: personal managers and trainers (in cooperation with Sector A,B)	A: people representing different groups by age, voluntary/ employees B: 06 – 09/2004 C: leaders, teachers and trainers (in cooperation with Sector A,B)
Report on testing ³	A: by contact person of AP1, on the basis of report structure and criteria given by national coordinator B: ½ of 10/2004	A: by contact person of AP2, on the basis of report structure and criteria given by national coordinator B: ½ of 10/2004	A: by contact person of AP3, on the basis of report structure and criteria given by national coordinator B: ½ of 10/2004	A: by contact person of AP4, on the basis of report structure and criteria given by national coordinator B: ½ of 10/2004
Report for conference	2/2 of 2004, compiled from collected Reports on testing (in consultancy with AP5)	2/2 of 2004, compiled from collected Reports on testing (in consultancy with AP5)	2/2 of 2004, compiled from collected Reports on testing (in consultancy with AP5)	2/2 of 2004, compiled from collected Reports on testing (in consultancy with AP5)

PARTNERSHIP:

AP1 – Business School of Ostrava plc – partner of the project (university type* of institution)

Contact person: Vladimir Krajcik, vice-rector, vladimir.krajcik@vsp.cz
Martin Poboril, project manager, martin.poboril@vsp.cz

* By Czech law privat institution cannot be named as university, but in fact the study programs are the same and are accredited in the same way as study programs run by public universities, only difference is that the public universities are financed by government and private from students money)

AP2 – Regional Centre for Lifelong Learning (vocational, youth and adult training org.
- regional learning network based on partnership mainly of secondary and higher education institutions /11 institutions across whole region/, now as organizational part of BSO plc, but at latest by 6/2004 as independent body on the basis of NGO)
Contact person: Martin Poboril, director, martin.poboril@eco.cz

AP3 – Regional Economic Chamber of Moravian-Silesian region (social partner - representative of employers in MS region, in close collaboration with one of the biggest employer in Ostrava region, sector of steel industry)
Contact person: Magda Habrmanova, director, m.habrmanova@rhko.cz

AP4 – Intermundia o.ps. (Non-profit and non-governmental organisation, in close cooperation with range of org. from third sector)
Contact person: Petr Zenker, director, kontakt@migrace.cz

AP5 – National Institute of Technical and Vocational Training, Prague (public institution, not eligible for funding, but participating as consultant and will take place in one of the conferences)
Contact person: Hana Cihakova, consultant, cihakova@nuov.cz

NOTES:

- (1) Sector A - University
Sector B- Vocational training (all levels)
Sector C – Employment (employers, employees /trade unions/)
Sector D – Youth and third sector Organization
- (2) A: means answer on question „How you will identify candidates?“
B: means answer on question „When the testing will take place?“
C: means answer on question „Who will do the testing?“
- (3) A: means answer on question “How the report will be written?”
B: means answer on question “When the report will be written?”