Background

- The Council of Turkish Universities Continuing Education Centers (Türkiye Üniversiteleri Sürekli Eğitim Merkezleri - TÜSEM) was established on 17 December 2010.
- Currently, TÜSEM Council has more than 100 members.

Focus

The Council of Turkish Universities Continuing Education Centers aims to:

- Make accreditation, assessment, documentation and briefing for all training programs organized by these centers.
- Ensure that the CECs develop themselves to be more active, widespread and qualified educational institutes and collaborate with different national and international institutes and organizations.
- Provide a strong and centralized representation of the CECs in front of the authorities.
- Facilitate the solution of their financial and bureaucratic problems.
- Make proposals for shared projects.
- Act as a coordinator of common training programs.
